

PRINCESS IOLANTHE

SAFETY BRIEFING

For your safety please read and familiarise yourself with the following, If you do not understand any of these instructions inform a Crew member immediately.

- Whilst on board this vessel, everyone has a responsibility for their own actions but, the Master is ultimately responsible for your safety. Please ensure you follow any instructions given by the Master or by the crew on his behalf
- The vessel operates a Non-Smoking policy inside the cabins and communal spaces.
- Cabin port holes shall remain closed when at sea.
- The Engine Room is a restricted area. Visits can be arranged with authorisation from the Master.
- Life jackets with a whistle and a light for use in an emergency are located in your cabin and at the muster station.
- On discovering an emergency situation, raise the alarm by contacting a crew member immediately.
- IN THE EVENT OF AN EMERGENCY SITUATION:
 - ◆ The ships bells will ring continuously, and all guests are to muster on the main aft deck or as directed by a Crew member. Please see diagrams for more information.
 - ◆ Clear orders will be given by a member of the crew, ensure you listen carefully and follow instructions as directed.
 - ◆ If you are in your cabin when the ships bell rings, please bring your life jackets to the muster point. Do not return to your cabin to collect personal effects or lifejackets as they are also available at the muster station.
- Life-rafts are stored in cradles on the exterior of the vessel and will be deployed automatically, or by a member of the crew, further instruction when to disembark the vessel into a raft will be issued by the Master.
- On witnessing a Man Over Board, raise the alarm by shout MAN OVERBOARD-MAN OVERBOARD repetitively until asked to stop by a member of the crew. Maintain visual contact with the casualty and point with your arm in the casualties direction.
- On discovering a fire, raise the alarm by activating a fire alarm, alternatively shout FIRE-FIRE-FIRE repetitively until asked to stop by a Crew member.
- If you feel unwell or sick whilst onboard do not hesitate to inform a Crew member.
- If you have any questions at any time, do not hesitate to ask a Crew member.

PRINCESS IOLANTHE

MUSTER STATIONS

Main Muster Station

Proceed to this location in the event of an emergency.

Alternate Muster Station
(Only to be used as directed by Crew member)

